Though will make use of foreigners as mercenaries. but has over rejused to recognize their status. One thing is protty certain-namely the fact of the Imperial Government having been driven to resort to most unusual and unpalatable measures to stave off the danger which threatened them: The elevation of Treng, and the nomination of the ex-Fuotal Li to be Covernor General of the Two Kinng, contrary to the provision which atipulates that no Mandarin can bold office in his native Province, are cases in point.

Nothing more has been heard about the Taipings, who however are known to be in force in the North East of the Canton province. Heavy floods have occurred in the valley of the Yangisse, causing us is reported, infinite damage Hankow bus risen forey feet higher than its level the corresponding period of last season. The city Nunking is literally under water. Great disress from want of find is anticipated An attempt is being made at Shanghai to ca-

The estimated outlay is so small and the object to be at wied so important, that the scheme will in all probability succeed. Some improvement may be expected if Rice can be hought in quantity of any of the producing markets, as doubtless many vessels will be wanted to carry the quantity which it is expected will be required to avers a famine

The five foreigners, who as stated at last report and been mentonged to death at the Supreme Court of this colony for, piracy and marder, underwent the extreme penalty of the law, notwithstanding the industries of the Macao authorities having been exerted to move them. The case was carefully investigated by the Executive, able Counsel being retained to arge all extendating oir cumstances. Not a weak link could be discovered in the evilence, nor a doubt cast on the justice of the sontence. The men died protesting their innocence. and there is a strong feeling prevailing on the subject, under the idea that Government should have provided means of defende at the trial.

At Japan everything appears to proceed antisfactority. The British Minister has however as many soldiers quartered at his residence, Yokobana, as the legation will accommodate. The quarrel between the Tye-on and the Prince of Nagato scome to hang fire, and there are re mours about an amicable arrungement. Foreign affaire appear more pacific than ever.
